

BIBLICAL BUDGET COUNSELING

COURSE DESCRIPTION

What is it?

A 20-hour course of self-study and seminar attendance leading to a certificate in Biblical Budget Counseling and future support for a church based, free budget counseling ministry.

Who is Eligible?

Eligibility for Biblical Budget Counseling Certification is open to Vocational Pastors, Ministers, Missionaries and Vocational Evangelists, and to laypersons who are sponsored by their pastor and will minister under his authority at no charge. We have not identified any other persons eligible for Biblical Budget Counseling Certification at this time but exceptions to this definition will be given consideration. Persons interested in this certification not eligible under this definition should discuss sponsorship with their pastor.

What are the Costs?

The course material is provided at no charge. There is no charge for seminar attendance. Donations are accepted but not solicited. This is a ministry of Biblical Principles, Inc. See www.biblicalprinciplesinc.org for information about Biblical Principles, Inc.

What does the course involve?

The course consists of application, four assignments, and documentation of completion.

The first and last hours are administrative. The four assignments are as follows:

- | | |
|---|---------|
| 1. Assignment 1 involves reading a book and a mastery exercise. | 6 Hours |
| 2. Assignment 2 involves completing a workbook and a mastery exercise. | 2 Hours |
| 3. Assignment 3 involves reading general advice and a mastery exercise. | 2 Hours |
| 4. Assignment 4 involves attending a seminar and practicing counseling. | 8 hours |

How is the course schedule determined?

Each candidate may begin the course at any time he or she chooses based on meeting the eligibility requirements and making application. Assignments 1-3 are self-paced and must be documented as complete before the Assignment 4 can be scheduled. The schedule for Assignment 4 will depend on the schedule of the seminar chosen by the candidate for completion of the final assignment. There will be a number of seminars available to choose from but the best choice is a seminar in the candidates' home church whenever possible.
