Service Schedules:

Session 1: During the Sunday School Hour, we recommend a 40-minute message, "Signs of Financial Bondage". There is a listening guide enclosed for reproduction.

Session 2: During the morning worship service, we recommend a 30-minute message, "Will a Man Rob God?". There is a listening guide enclosed for reproduction.

Session 3: During the afternoon, we plan a workshop, "Six Biblical Steps to Financial Freedom", at the time designated by the pastor. We will plan to use at least 60 minutes, but 75 minutes is better, allowing for Q & A. We will provide a workbook for those who attend the session. We will bring enough copies for the workshop.

Session 4: During the evening worship service, we recommend a 20-minute message, "Financial Freedom". There is a listening guide enclosed for reproduction.

Budget-counseling Sessions: There are nine sessions made available by appointment through the church. A person from the church should be assigned to be the contact person (registrar) to administer registration. Form 6 is provided in this package for the purpose of administering registration. There can be a stigma attached to persons registering for a budget-counseling session so it is recommended that while the solicitation for registration must be publicly announced, the registration itself should be kept confidential by the registrar. There is a preliminary schedule of budget-counseling sessions is shown on Form 6. There is latitude on the times on the sessions (schedule them as early or late as necessary) and additional sessions can be made available if needed. We recommend modest casual attire for the budget-counseling sessions. The church designates the location for the sessions. Staff members are encouraged to schedule themselves for budget counseling. Staff members are welcome to attend any budget-counseling session with the concurrence of the counselee (s). Each family scheduled for budget counseling should be given a copy of Form 7 with the date, day and time of their counseling session filled in and a copy of Form 1.
